

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

COREY J. THOMAS,

Defendant.

ORDER

08-cr-97-bbc

As set out in a number of previous orders entered in this case, defendant Corey Thomas was convicted of two bank robberies in 2008, sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 324 months and ordered to make restitution. He has made a number of payments toward his restitution obligation, but he objects to turning over to the Bureau of Prisons a deposit of $1,376.91, which he received from the United States Government. The office of the Acting United States Attorney was informed of the deposit and took the customary step of notifying the Federal Bureau of Prisons of the deposit. On June 22, 2021, the Acting United States Attorney moved this court for an order authorizing the Bureau of Prisons to turn over to the Clerk of Court the $1,376.91 defendant had received from the government, to be applied toward payment of the criminal monetary penalties defendant still owes. That motion was granted.

Defendant continues to object to requiring him to turn over the funds to the Bureau of Prisons, but this court has decided that issue against him. Defendant is free to appeal this court's decision, but this court will not entertain any additional motions he files that challenge this court's determination that he must turn over to the Federal Bureau of Prisons the $1,376.91 he received from the government.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that defendant Corey J. Thomas's motion to reverse this court's determination that he must turn over to the Federal Bureau of Prisons the $1,376.91 he received from the United States Government in 2021 is DENIED.

Entered this 6th day of October, 2021.
